

Module 4: Málaga Municipality

4.1 Introduction to Module 4

In this introduction, you will find an overview of the topics covered in this module, along with the methodology and requirements for completion. The course tutors are available to assist you with any clarifications you may need.

Below, you will find a table detailing the submodules included in this section:

Title	Submodules	Paragraphs
1. Introduction	Overview of what this module is about, what to expect and what the learning objectives are.
2. Our Planet. The Environmental Crisis	How do ecosystems work?	Impermanence/ Interdependence
	Crisis? What Crisis?	Climate
		Resources
		Overexploitation
	Indicators	Temperature rises
		Carbon Footprint/Ecological Footprint
		World emissions map. Evolution

3. Our species. The social crisis	Evolution of the size and distribution of the world population.
	The European case
	Urban systems. Dependency	Deficit.
	Rural systems. Overexploitation	Forced Systems.
	Indicators	The trap of linear economics.
		Climate Migrations.
4. Unpacking the Crisis	Waste. Covered or burned.
	Water. Availability.
	Energy. Sources and Options.
	Mobility. Your choice.
	Climate. Mitigation/Adaptation.
	Air Quality. ATM and acoustics.
	Consumption Patterns	Decline
		Common good
The Circular Economy

5. Environmental Challenges. The balance	In the previous section we described “the problem” and this one is dedicated to the real environmental “Challenge”, which is none other than to return to a sustainable balance: What would be the “ideal” situation for the MSW problem? What should mobility look like?
6. The Legal Framework. Green Deal and SDGs	European Green Pact
	SDG
7. Responsibility. inward-looking	This sub-module will be devoted to the active role of citizens in the necessary change of habits, with special reference to the impulse that the younger generations must lead.
8. Recap	Review of key points in each sub-module - What have we learned?
9. Additional Resources	PDF links and websites where participants can find more information.
10. Bibliography	List of all sources used to create the content of the module

